CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Some surprise was occasioned this morning by the announcement that a man by the name of Jules Soule, former editor of the Alliance Courier and Daily World had been charged before Commissioner Scott with the larceny of two kegs of cider from the room under the Odd Fellows Hall. The complaint was sworn out by S. T. Bledsoe as attorney for Hughes Bros. & Co., of Dallas, to whom the goods belonged. It appears that the goods had been consigned to the Ardmore Commission Co. and on their failure to pay for same was taken back and stored in the room under the Odd Fellows Hall. Yesterday Mr. Bledsoe went there for the purpose of removing the goods and failed to find all the packages. Enquiry among the printers, failed to disclose any of the facts as to its disappearance. Soule was approached and Mr. Bledsoe says denied any knowledge of the goods, but volunteered to assist him in hunting them up. Mr. Bledsoe walked himself down in his vain endeavor. This morning a printer came to Mr. Bledsoe and told him he could locate the stolen cider. This was welcome information, and acting on it, a warrant was sworn out authorizing the search of Soule's premises. The warrant was placed in the hands of Deputy D. D. Flow, who in company with Mr. Bledsoe, executed it. The search brought the cider to view from its hiding place in the garret of Soule's residence. He admitted having the goods when confronted with the warrant and claimed he had taken charge of it for the protection of the owner. This sounds rather strange in view of the fact that he disclaimed any knowledge of it yesterday.

A warrant for the arrest of the accused is in the hands of the officer and he is in all probability now under arrest. These are the facts as obtained from Mr. Bledsoe and officer Flow and are given without comment. The trial will probably develop them more definitely or vindicate the prisoner if he is innocent.

THE DAWES COMMISSION.

SOUTH McALESTER, I. T., March 27.—The Dawes commission to treat with the five civilized tribes arrived here today and took quarters at the Hotel Gill. Governor Wilson Jones, principal chief of the Choctaw Nation, passed through here today on his way to Tusksahoma to meet with the special session of the council, which convenes tomorrow. Governor Jones is very shy, and says but little as to what his program is in reference to treating with the Dawes commission. It is generally conceded by those who know that the Choctaws will probably pass an act favoring allotment. The commission, looking forward to this, have moved to this point for the purpose of being near their work.—Fort Worth Gazette.

A REWARD OF $500

Will be paid for any case of Rheumatism which cannot be cured by Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy. This offer is made in good faith by the proprietors, and there is no reasonable excuse for any one to suffer longer. Any ordinary case will be cured by one treatment, and it is poor economy to suffer when relief can be secured so certainly; the price of a month's treatment—two bottles—is $5, and that is the cost of a cure. Full particulars and testimonials of wonderful cures sent to any address. Drummond Medicine Company, 48 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

J. F. Snell, of Paris, Tex., candidate for tax assessor, of Lamar county, is in town shaking hands with his many friends, some of whom are mean enough to say that he is up here soliciting for votes. This may be true but if so, it must be from constant association with our people, who radiate so frequently between the Territory and Paris in their attendance upon the federal court at that place. If this is his mission we can assure him of a hearty support from Ardmore.

WANTED.

An active agent in each county in the United States, to solicit subscriptions for the Twice-a-Week Republic. A liberal commission will be paid to hunters. Address Superintendent Circulation, The Republic, St. Louis, Mo.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

But very little was done today in Judge Stuart's court. The cases being tried are all of old standing and drag along very slowly.

In the case of Wallace vs. Smith the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff. This was a case in which the plaintiff sued for possession of a place on which defendant was a tenant plaintiff being a citizen.

The services at the Methodist church last night were well attended, in fact the house was crowded. The sermon by Rev. Freeman was one of unusual power. The exhortation "I am afraid I will not tell you" certainly got a blow that will be always remembered. Notwithstanding the fierce wind today there was good attendance and a fine service.

A special from Gainesville to the Dallas News says: Deputy United States Marshal A. S. Pulliam came down from Ardmore last evening having in custody Sam Early, arrested in the Chickasaw Nation. He is wanted in Jones county, Texas. A sensation in gentlemen's circles is anticipated.

The attention of our readers is called to the "ad" of the Red Store which appears in this issue of the Ardmoreite. Mr. Wiseman the proprietor is here to stay and to sell goods. His inducements are equal to any in the city and we commend him to our readers as worthy of a fair share of their patronage.

It was Rev. Stubblefield, pastor of the Baptist Church, instead of Rev. Claypool who performed the marriage ceremony yesterday between Jack Cavener and Mrs. Nabers. Our reporter was excited and dazzled by the eloquence of Capt. Galt in his presentation speech—hence the mistake.

A baby was born last night to Mr. and Mrs. Wright at the City restaurant. It is a girl and is a welcome visitor.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The Democrats hope to pass the tariff bill by the 1st of June.

The President may hold the seigniorage bill in abeyance until Friday. Champ Clark tells an interesting story of how General John B. Henderson got his start.

The O'Neil Joy contest is to be taken up Tuesday, and it is understood the Republicans will continue to filibuster.

Coquet sets cheap at London's. 2t
D. Redfield the insurance man has put up an attractive sign in front of his office.

W. B. Moore, manager of the Oil mills, returned from Oklahoma City this morning.

D. Driscoll general baggage agent of the Santa Fe, with headquarters at Galveston, is in the city.

J. T. Conner assistant general passenger agent for the Wabash railroad, is in the city in the interest of his road.

A special private car passed north yesterday bearing B. F. Yonkour general manager; A. J. Davidson general superintendent; and F. M. Bisbee superintendent of bridges and track. They were on a tour of inspection and were bound for Purcell.
